On March 16, 2010 Albemarle County Police arrested two individuals for possession of child pornography. These arrests were the result of a month long joint investigation with the Charlottesville Police Department. Detectives executed four search warrants and recovered computers and other electronic devices that contained numerous images and videos of child pornography.

Christopher Michael Watson (Albemarle County) has been charged with ten counts of possession of child pornography and is currently being held at the Albemarle/Charlottesville Regional Jail pending a bond hearing.

Lawrence Douglas Green Jr. (Albemarle County) has been charged with seven counts of possession of child pornography and is currently being held at the Albemarle/Charlottesville Regional Jail pending a bond hearing.
